Black History Month:
Last Sunday, our High School students in Brother Wigfall's zoom room shared historical facts about A. Philip Randolph. Mr. Randolph, a civil Rights leader and labor organizer founded the first major Black labor union in the United States.

"Hats off" to Amari and Aaron for a "magnificent" job! We are so proud of you both
- Charleston Metropolitan Youth Bible School:
Please join us on Sundays at 9:00 am on zoom. We will begin our Spring Quarter, our theme is "Defenders of God's Justice." We will learn about how seeking justice in God's way is at the core of following Jesus. God's justice shapes the future.

Please contact Sister Brown or one of our Youth Bible school teachers to register your children. Together, we can grow in our relationship with God.

Thanking you,
Charleston Metropolitan Youth Bible School

Wednesday Night Bible Study Book

CHURCH Matters

Passionate Pleadings
That Prepare Us for the Future

COMPILED BY
John Davis Marshall
AND 13 OTHER MEN OF GOD

The hardcover book can be purchased on-line through Amazon and other Christian/ Non-Christian Book Stores. There is no audio or electronic version available yet. Below is the link for ordering through Amazon.

CHURCH Matters

God warned His people that they would always encounter relevant and renovating adversities (1 Timothy 4:1-2). Fortunately, adequately warned and armed believers can maintain spiritual momentum in spite of adversities (Acts 6:7).

Church Matters seeks to frame a spiritual thought pattern/process to begin/continue thinking about relevant issues that are presently and will be in the near future significantly impacting our brotherhood.

Church Matters seeks to begin/continue the dialogue between and among leaders/members about those relevant and impacting issues.

Church Matters seeks to cause leaders/members to position/reposition themselves to minimize evil and maximize good as our brotherhood engages these relevant and impacting issues.

Now Take. Read.

Please, allow Church Matters to transmit the passion from men of faith and ignite the flame within your heart that compels and propels you to carry the torch of spiritual renovation throughout your world.
